Chance to have a say on development plan

HANNAH MIRSKY

NOW is your chance to have your say on a proposed development which could see 2,500 new homes in Haverhill.

A masterplan document for the proposed £300 million Great Wilsey Park development in North East Haverhill has been released, and a consultation is planned.

The document outlines plans for a development between Haverhill Road, which runs towards Bury St Edmunds, and Chalkstone Way, stretching out to back onto Haverhill golf club in the east of the town.

The site would hold up to 2,500 homes, including 120 specialised properties for elderly residents.

It would also have a new primary school, a small health centre with 4 GPs and space for visiting specialists, and local centres with pharmacies, cafes and shops.

There would be 370 new jobs created on the site.

One key aspect of the masterplan is the vision of having 80 hectares of green space, including a 42 acre country park.

As well as greenery, the park would have play space for children, allotments, and pieces of public art.

The country park would join up with East Town Park, and the development would also include space for Samuel Ward Academy to expand.

In response to feedback given to the borough council during previous consultations, there will not be a road linking the site to Coupals Road.

It will instead be accessible to vehicles from Haverhill Road and Chalkstone Way.

Paul Donno, chair of the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, has been calling for a road linking the site to Coupals Road, to provide an exit from the town towards Essex.

He said: "The development makes Haverhill more attractive for larger investors and people who want to work here. It's excellent in terms of investment, but why on earth would we have two exits going the Cambridge route and no adequate one to Essex?"

Ian Johnson is a resident who has been campaigning for a country park in Haverhill, and against a road linking the site to Coupals Road, as it would cut the country park in two.

He said: "I am very very pleased there's no road linking to Coupals Road. I'm keeping my fingers crossed it won't be resurrected."

"But I would like to have seen a nine hole golf course rather than a six hole golf course, and a nice avenue of trees which would go through the middle of the park. That could be used for things like car boot sales."

"I would like as many people as possible to go along and tell developers what they want."

Sally Adlen from Hallam Land Management, one of the groups proposing the development, said: "Our proposals respond to the consultation feedback which was provided to the Council previously."

"We have included health provision, schools and other facilities and will be providing almost 200 acres of green and open space, including a 42 acre country park to the south of the site."

"We hope the community will visit the events on the 3rd June, we would be keen to know what residents would like the country park to include and will be showing a number of options."

Town, borough and county councillor Tony Brown said: "It looks like a very good scheme. There's a lot of

MINISTER: Matthew Hancock

Re-elected MP takes up Cabinet role

CONSERVATIVE Matthew Hancock - who was re-elected as MP for West Suffolk last Thursday - has been given a role in Prime Minister David Cameron's new Cabinet.

Mr Hancock, who won his seat with a majority of 52.2 per cent, is the new Minister of the Cabinet Office and Paymaster General.

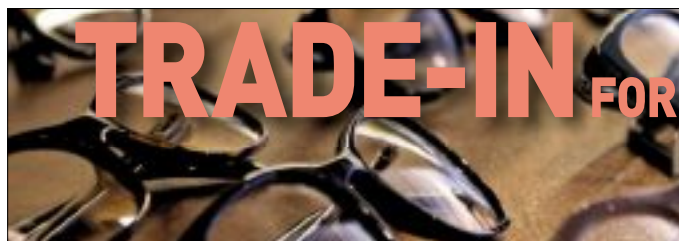

He will be responsible for public sector efficiency and reform, civil service issues, industrial relations in the public sector, government transparency, civil contingencies, civil society, cyber security and UK statistics. He will attend Cabinet meetings.

He said on Tuesday that he had three priorities for Haverhill: bringing jobs and investments to the town, improving transport and the A1307 and improving healthcare.

He said: "The promise from the Conservatives that we will have seven day a week and evening access to GPs will be of great benefit to Haverhill."

Football stars play for charity at town arena

EX Cambridge United football players visited Haverhill on Sunday to take part in a fundraising football match.

The match took place at the town's New Croft. The day started at 11.30am with snacks, face painting and a bouncy castle for children, before the match kicked off at 1pm.

The ex Cambridge United footballers were playing Barley FC, a Cambridge-shire Sunday football club having a reunion.

The final scoreline was Cambridge United 13-1 Barley FC.

Cambridge United players taking part include Danny Potter, Rob Wollerston, Andy Duncan and Tes

Bramble. David Boughtwood of Barley FC decided to turn the match into a charity fundraiser for Great Ormond Street Children's Hospital after learning a team member's daughter had been treated there.

Goalkeeper Matt Peet's daughter Izabella, 7, had a brain tumour the size of a thumb removed at Great Ormond Street earlier this year.

Mr Peet said: "She's a completely different person. She's curious about the world around her, incredibly outgoing, very lively."

The match raised more than £2,100 for Great Ormond Street Children's Hospital.

Pick up your guide on dementia care

HANNAH MIRSKY

IN the run up to Dementia Awareness Week, a Haverhill care home is giving out free guides on how to help dementia sufferers stay active.

Cleves Place Care home in Millfields Way opened earlier this year, and three of its four care communities look after people suffering from dementia.

Care UK, which runs Cleves Place, has published a guide called Good to Go, which highlights the importance of staying active for people with dementia, and offers practical advice on making the most of every outing.

The guide suggests building in plenty of flexibility when you go out with a person suffering from dementia, and being prepared to go with the moment.

The number of people with dementia in Suffolk is expected to double over the next 15 years, from 8,600 to 17,000, according to Care UK.

Sharon Van Tonder, manager of

FREE GUIDES: Cleves Place

Cleves Place, said: "People are often very fearful to take people with dementia out. They say: 'Will this affect how they are?'. I say: 'Unless you give it a go, how will you know?'"

The guide has been released for Dementia Awareness Week, which runs from May 18 to May 24.

Ms Van Tonder says that Haverhill is a good place to help a person with dementia stay active, as it has green spaces and a convenient town centre.

"We are quite near Tesco and the town centre and Cleves Place, and we're lucky with the parks we have around, like East Town Park.

"If people want to start off slow, they can just go into their gardens.

"We're suggesting to people that it doesn't have to be all the way to Clacton-on-Sea.

"Just going to a nursery, like the one in Sturmer, going to the park, going to a Tesco for a cup of tea. Don't worry about making it about going somewhere, just get someone out and about."

She encouraged carers to come into the home to pick up the Good to Go guide, but it is also available on the Care UK website.

"The message we want to get across to carers is that they are not alone," said Ms Van Tonder. "We want to be a part of the community, with so many carers living in Haverhill."

She recommends visiting the Alzheimer's Society website, www.alzheimers.org.uk, and the Age UK website, www.ageuk.org.uk, for more support.

The Good to Go guide can be downloaded from www.careuk.com/good-to-go.

Transfer of community centre sparks concerns

HANNAH MIRSKY

RESIDENTS have spoken out about the transfer of a community centre to a new owner, saying they were not properly consulted.

The Chalkstone Community Centre in Haverhill's Strasbourg Square was transferred from St Edmundsbury Borough Council ownership to the River of Life Community Church last Wednesday, May 6, as reported last week.

The transfer was the result of a decision made by the borough council in 2009 to give all the community centres it owned to local groups.

As it was a "community asset transfer" and not a sale, the community centre would either have been given away for free, or sold for the cost of £1.

Ernie Goody, who lives opposite the centre and is secretary of the Chalkstone Association of Tenants and Residents (CATRA) said: "Apparently River of Life sent letters out to many people, but not to me and not to the shops on the square. And then suddenly it's a done deal."

Gwen Dalton, chair of CATRA, said: "It's local people who should have the say. It's their community centre after all."

Paul Turner, pastor of the River of Life Community Church, said: "We delivered a letter and a questionnaire to every home on the Chalkstone estate."

"I think some folks say that they didn't get those letters, and if they didn't I'm sorry about that, but a lot of stuff comes through the post.

TRANSFERRED: The Chalkstone Community Centre

"The local papers ran articles which mentioned, I think quite clearly, that there was a consultation."

"We also had an afternoon when we invited people to come to the Chalkstone estate and discuss it."

"I felt that we had tried to engage. Obviously they are going to be our neighbours and we want to get on."

River of Life's report on their consultation reveals that although they produced 500 questionnaires for residents to fill in, only 31 were returned – 29 in the post and two at the consultation session.

This is a return rate of just 6.2 per cent.

Of the respondents, 27 said they would like to see the centre used more, and 28 said it was in need of refurbishment.

Paul Turner said the church aims to continue the current schedule at the community centre, reach out to more groups to see if they would like to use it, and in the long term to get some refurbishments done.

The church has been in contact with CATRA about the running of the community centre.

No separate consultation was carried out by St Edmundsbury Borough Council about the transfer of the centre.

Since 2009 they have met with several community groups about the possibility of their owning the Chalkstone Centre, including Haverhill town council and CATRA.

Cllr Sara Mildmay-White, who was the borough council's deputy leader and cabinet member for health and communities at the time of the transfer, said: "We offered it to the town council, as they had taken over the Leiston Centre, and we offered it to CATRA, and they had a look."

"Then the River of Life came forward and they were part of the community."

"They carried out the consultation with local people and the staff were very much involved."

"To the people who are using the group and the local authority it all seems quite satisfactory. It's just a change of management and ownership."

"We look forward to it being very much part and parcel of the community in a way it has really fallen away from."

Although the transfer was originally scheduled to take place this summer, Cllr Mildmay-White said that it took place on May 6 because staff contracts were already coming to an end.

Timetabled activities at the Chalkstone Community Centre will continue as normal.

FRESHLY PAINTED: The postbox was cleaned up after the issue was reported in last week's Weekly News

Vandalised postbox painted

A POSTBOX left covered in white paint for two months has been repainted – after an article about it was published in the Weekly News.

The postbox, in Haverhill's Western Avenue, had paint thrown over it by vandals during the night on February 28 and remained that way ever since.

Resident Clare Reeve contacted the Weekly News, and the issue was reported in last week's edition, including an apology from Royal Mail and a promise that they would get the work done.

Sure enough, this week the postbox received a fresh lick of paint.

Clare, who lives in Cambridge Way, said: "After waiting for two months for it to be repainted, we now have a lovely, freshly painted one!"

"Funny, what a little help from the newspaper can do."

green spaces and they've got the country park.

"We would like to see a bit more detail, which we are hoping to do at the consultation. From first impressions I'm very pleased."

"The main point now is to get everyone to engage at this stage. This is a really important time for people to get their comments in."

"They can influence the plans in the future if they make their feelings heard at this stage."

If the plan receives planning permission from St Edmundsbury Borough Council this year, it will take nine to 10 years to complete.

The planners are asking for the views of local people on the masterplan document.

The consultation opened on Friday, May 8, and closes on Friday, June 19.

HOW IT COULD LOOK: Artist's impression of a street scene

Two consultation events will take place on Wednesday, June 3.

One will run from 1pm to 3pm in the Studio at Haverhill Arts Centre, and the other will take place from 4.30pm to 8pm in the dining hall at Churchill Free School, in the grounds of Samuel Ward Academy.

ANOTHER FIVE YEARS:
Matthew Hancock was re-elected as Conservative MP for West Suffolk last Thursday

Conservative Hancock holds West Suffolk

HANNAH MIRSKY

INCUMBENT Conservative MP Matthew Hancock held his seat comfortably in West Suffolk on Thursday night, with 52.2 per cent of the vote – a total of 25,684 votes.

UKIP's Julian Flood was second with 10,700 votes, 21.7 per cent of those cast. In the 2010 general election the Liberal Democrats were the second most popular party, and UKIP received just 6.4 per cent.

Mr Flood beat Labour candidate and district and county councillor Michael Jefferys, who received 8,604 votes, 17.5 per cent off those cast.

Liberal Democrat Elfreda Tealby-Watson received 2,465 votes (5 per cent) and Green Niall Pettitt received 1,779 votes (3.6 per cent).

Turnout was 64.9 per cent, a very slight increase on the last election. A total of 49,429 ballot papers were counted, out of a possible electorate of 76,198.

Mr Hancock's majority was 14,984. He said after the results were announced: "It seems to be a message that has been accepted across the country that in order to protect the security of our families nationwide and our economic recovery, we need to continue our work."

"I pledge tonight that I will be working with all I can for West Suffolk."

"Five years ago I said it was humbling to be elected. I have enjoyed every minute, but it's equally humbling to be re-elected. I take it not as a vote of confidence, but as a request to work yet harder for the benefit of all the people in West Suffolk."

He outlined his top priorities for the constituency: "I will continue the work on jobs and apprenticeships that I have put so much effort into, to give all young people the opportunities they deserve."

"Secondly, I am committed to bringing a cinema to Newmarket, which I am really looking forward to working on."

"Third is to improve the infrastructure, both the roads and the broadband. I'd like to keep the economy growing and stable, including attracting businesses to West Suffolk, and making it a good place to grow business."

"I want to represent all my constituents and try to solve individual problems through surgeries and casework. It's a part of the job that doesn't get spoken about as much, but is very important."

Mr Flood said after the results: "I would have liked more, obviously I would have liked to be an MP. As a county councillor when I ask questions I get answers, and I imagine as an MP you get even better answers."

"But it's a great result for the party. Mr Farage said that he expected us to get a lot of seconds this time, and next time we will secure it. As usual Mr Farage was right."

Labour's Michael Jefferys said: "Clearly I was very disappointed. I did expect to do better, but the swing across the country clearly affected the result in West Suffolk."

"I was particularly disappointed to come third to the UKIP candidate. I thought I ran a good campaign, but clearly the swing affected it."

Green Niall Pettitt said: "Overall it's clear that the voters have lost this one. A quarter of the votes have gone to a party with less than two per cent of the seats. After the election I think there will be a very strong campaign for a more proportional system."

Sorry I didn't get in – but thank you

AS Election Agent and candidate for Labour in the town council and borough elections I would like through your newspaper to thank all the voters for their efforts in the election.

I must congratulate the Conservatives and UKIP candidates for their success in taking most of the seats between them.

Although I personally did not get elected, which is a huge personal disappointment as I have enjoyed working for the benefit of Haverhill people, I do hope people will remember me – as a good councillor or at least for doing no harm.

I had a very good attendance record with only the odd meeting missed due to personal circumstances.

I am personally pleased that all the hard work did result in Maureen Byrne being re-elected for Haverhill South, Pat Hanlon in the East and Tom Chivers, a new councillor in the North Wards for Haverhill Town Council. It is deeply disappointing not to have any Haverhill Labour councillors on the borough or county councils.

I do hope because of this, the issues we stand for and have campaigned for will not get forgotten and the people of Haverhill will not suffer as a result.

I would also like to thank the town clerk(s) I have worked with and all the staff for all their hard work which makes the town council work so well, and lastly, all the people involved in collecting the votes and counting them as they all worked very hard and very long hours – some of whom worked from 6am Thursday morning right round till the last count was called at 8pm on Friday.

I'll continue to work hard for our town

I WOULD like to thank everyone who voted for me last Thursday. To serve everyone on Haverhill Town Council East Ward again will be a great honour.

As your councillor I will keep doing what I have done in the past and speak up for the special needs, most vulnerable, cutting GP waiting times plus other things that can affect our lovely town of Haverhill from austerity and council cuts.

Thank you again.

Your Pictures

THESE stunning photos of a young fox were taken by Wayne Symons, from Haverhill.

"The hungry little fellow appeared in a neighbour's garden at the east end of Haverhill on Sunday afternoon.

"He or she was seen back with the rest of the litter that night."

Thank you for putting your trust in us

WE would like to thank the people of Haverhill in voting for us in the recent local elections.

We will strive to work together, across any political divide, for the benefit of local organisations, the town and particularly its people. Thank you for putting your trust in us.

UKIP Councillors: Andrew Bramwell, Tony Brown, John Burns, Jason Crooks, Barry Robbins & Ant Williams

TOWNSWOMEN'S GUILD

AT the April meeting members welcomed Linda Scoles, who gave a humorous talk about her family's experience settling into English life when her husband was serving with United States Airforce; also all the travelling she has done from where she was brought up on a ranch in the foothills of Cascade Mountains near Wenatchee, Washington State.

She really made the group laugh, a real tonic.

Sixteen members attended Arts and Crafts in Lavenham and stopped off for lunch. The following day eight members attended the Federation AGM and lunch in Cambridge.

The next meeting is on Tuesday

May 26th, 7pm for 7.15pm, at the West End Congregational Church, when the speaker will be Rosemary Wheeler, Life of a Woman Butcher. If you want a laugh and a natter please come along.

Head supports new university

HANNAH MIRSKY

A HAVERHILL headteacher has spoken out in support of a new university in Suffolk.

Howard Lay, executive principal of the Samuel Ward Academy Trust, is also an honorary fellow of University Campus Suffolk, a campus based in Ipswich.

University Campus Suffolk degrees are currently accredited by the University of East Anglia or the University of Essex.

The campus is currently undergoing an inspection process by the Quality Assurance Agency to see if it can become an independent university and accredit its own degrees. This would make it Britain's newest university.

Mr Lay said: "I have got a commitment to the university because I believe in it. I think a county without a university has missed out on a lot of opportunities."

"It's really exciting. We will bring a research base to Suffolk, which is applicable in industry as well as education."

EDUCATOR: Howard Lay

"It will bring a huge capacity for industries in Suffolk and help them develop and grow. Just having access to higher level research is really important."

"Unlike a lot of universities, it's got a really really strong connection with its locality. It wants to engage with schools and wants other organisations to work with it. So it's not distanced from the community."

"It's focused on raising aspiration and stimulating inventions in the local economy. I'm really positive about it. I really encourage people to get engaged with the university."

Schools in the Samuel Ward Academy Trust, which Mr Lay runs, include Haverhill's Samuel Ward Academy, Clements Primary School, Westfield Primary Academy and Churchill Special Free School.

Mr Lay said: "I know it will make a difference to our students. Already we have had students who are not from families with a university background who have visited the campus and been encouraged by it. What they have seen has encouraged them to have the confidence."

"We have children as young as Year Seven who are already engaging with the university. It's a huge resource."

Mr Lay chaired a dinner on February 25 at which headteachers from across Suffolk voiced their thoughts on the plans for a university.

IN THE SADDLE: Participants have fun in the fancy dress charity riding day at Three Counties Riding School

Pictures: Sarah Preston

Dressed-up fundraising for riders

MEMBERS of a horse riding school dressed up on Sunday to show their support for a budding equestrian with cerebral palsy.

Aiden Thomas, 5, has the neurological condition and attends Three Counties Riding School in Little Wratting with his twin brother Owen, in order to build up his muscular strength.

Aiden rides the school's two miniature Shetland ponies, Millie and Duchess.

Riding school co-founders and instructors Sasha Perfect and Corey Morris organised a fancy dress show on Saturday to celebrate Aiden's progress and raise some money for his expensive physiotherapy.

The event was attended by 20 young riders and their families and £30 was raised for Aiden.

Ms Perfect said: "The kids had great fun on the day."

Spate of thefts from vehicles

NEARLY £4000 worth of goods have been stolen from vehicles in Haverhill over the last fortnight.

The goods, from an iPad to scrap metal, were taken in six separate incidents, mostly involving people breaking into cars.

The iPad, worth £900, was stolen from a vehicle in the town's Hopton Rise overnight between Sunday, May 3rd and Monday, May 4th.

Hopton Rise was the site of another vehicle break-in between 3am and 3.15am just a week later, on Monday, May 11. Nothing was taken during this incident.

Overnight between Saturday, May 9 and Sunday, May 10, a yellow Toyota parked in Cambridge Close had scrap metal stolen from its boot.

The same night, an in-car camera, iPod touch, cig-rettes and cash, were taken from a blue Toyota parked in Turner Close. The stolen goods were worth a total of £350.

HANNAH MIRSKY

Overnight between Friday, May 8, and Saturday May 9, a Ford parked in Sorrell Walk had various items, including a car radio stolen from it. The total value of the items stolen was £620.

A catalytic converter worth £2,000 was stolen from from a white Mercedes Sprinter van in Hollands Road the same night.

A spokesperson for Suffolk Police said: "We would ask all drivers to take simple and sensible security measures to protect their property."

"In several recent incidents valuable items have been taken from vehicles and we'd urge you to ensure you don't leave things such as satellite navigation systems, iPods, cash, phones, tools or important documents inside your car or van if you are leaving it unattended.

"Please remember to lock, and check you have locked, your vehicle and make sure nothing is left on view. An opportunist thief may look in and see a coat or newspaper on the back seat and break in to see if there is something hidden underneath."

"Other criminals may just go along trying car doors until they find one that opens, so by locking up and removing items you will reduce the chances of being targeted."

To protect catalytic converters, you can have them marked by police. For more information, contact the Crime Reduction Officer by calling 101.

Have your say on town at annual meeting

HAVERHILL'S annual town meeting is being held on Monday – and you're invited to go and have your say.

The meeting will take place at 7pm at the Haverhill Arts Centre, and all members of the community are invited to voice their opinions on issues affecting the town.

Issues raised last year included the need for a country park as part of the development in North East Haverhill, potholes, and the vitality of the High Street.

The meeting will be chaired by outgoing mayor Roger Andre, and town clerk Colin Poole will take notes.

Directly after the town meeting, the new town council will meet for the first time. Mr Andre will then chair the election of Haverhill's new mayor.

The town meeting is a legal requirement of town and parish councils laid out in the 1972 Local Government Act, and it must take place between May 1 and June 1 every year.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Priory extension's award

THE extension of Clare Priory in the village of Clare has been named Project of the Year at the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors East of England Awards.

It beat the restoration and refurbishment of the portico and railings at Cambridge's Fitzwilliam Museum to claim first prize.

The awards took place on May 6 at the Apex in Bury St Edmunds.

The judges said: "As well as providing an excellent example of conservation work, the new build is of a high quality design and construction. Furthermore, the priory has enhanced facilities that benefit the existing and wider communities. The project ensures that the future of this site is secure and will benefit many in years to come."

Mobility scooter stolen

A MOBILITY scooter worth £300 has been stolen from outside a home.

The scooter, which was "very old", was taken from an address in Haverhill's Beech Grove.

The incident took place overnight between Monday, May 4, and Tuesday, May 5.

Bungalow fire put out

A FIRE at a riverside bungalow in Sturmer was extinguished by Suffolk Fire and Rescue last night.

They were called out at 6.23pm, and sent three vehicles to the scene in Kedington Road. The fire was out by 7.31pm. An ambulance was called and a man in his 70s was treated for smoke inhalation.

Firms prepare for hospice challenge

HANNAH MIRSKY

BUSINESSES in Haverhill are taking part in Suffolk's biggest corporate fundraising challenge.

Organisations including Sanofi, HMP Highpoint, Saffron Insurance, CXG, Samuel Ward Academy and Abbeycroft Leisure are gearing up for St Nicholas Hospice Care's Accumulator Challenge.

The groups will each be given £50 by sponsors, and over three months in June they will have to make as much money from it as they can.

The event has been running since 2010, and in the past businesses have come up with creative strategies for fundraising including wine tasting evenings, mechanical pig racing challenges and go-karting.

More traditional fundraisers, such as cake and book sales, have also been a success, and over the years more than £230,000 has been raised for the hospice.

Hospice corporate fundraiser Rachel Card said: "I am looking forward to a packed three months of fun. In the past I've seen the firms taking part getting up to all sorts of innovative fundraising escapades – from fancy dress congas, to competitive rounders tournaments to epic cycle rides – and I'm sure this year will be no different.

"As well as raising much-needed funds, I hope it will be a good team-building exercise and business networking opportunity.

"Every penny raised will help the hospice to make living with dying better for people facing long-term and life-threatening illnesses."

She is looking for more businesses to take part to make this year's challenge even more successful.

For more information, or to get your local business involved, you can contact Rachel on 01284 715560 or email rachel.card@stnh.org.uk.

STOLEN: A ring and tie-pin that police recovered from a vehicle during investigations

Do you recognise this stolen jewellery?

POLICE are attempting to trace the owners of two items of jewellery which they believe were stolen.

The tie-pin and ring were discovered inside a vehicle which was seized during investigations into a rogue trading incident last month.

The incident took place at 1.30pm on Tuesday, April 21, in Chalkstone Way.

A helicopter search was initiated after three men were seen entering a property, and apparently told the resident, a man in his 80s, that they could repair his home, before leaving abruptly.

A 29-year-old man from Witham was arrested in connection with the incident. He was taken to Bury St Edmunds Police Investigation Centre and was released on bail until June 17.

If you recognise the items pictured contact Bury St Edmunds CID on 101 quoting reference HH/15/944.

Businessman to speak at event in New Orleans

THE chair of the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce has been invited to be a guest speaker at an international event in the USA.

Paul Donno, who runs an online accounting business, accounts, will be giving two presentations at the Sage Summit, an event to help accountants transform their businesses.

The three-day event will take place in New Orleans, Louisiana, from July 27 to July 30.

It will involve speakers, workshops, demonstrations and an expo, with 7,500 people expected to attend.

Mr Donno's presentations will be focussed on how accountants can move their businesses online and into "the Cloud".

He set up 1accounts in 2014, providing users instant online access to their accounts from any device.

Mr Donno said: "Whilst this isn't the first time that I have spoken about online accounting at an international conference for Sage it is certainly the biggest audience I have been let loose on! In 2013 I spoke to hundreds of fellow accountants at events in Dublin, London, Barcelona and Madrid.

"The Summit is on a completely different level. It is a much bigger event with thousands of delegates and has a jam-packed programme running over four days. I am honoured to receive the invitation and am really looking forward to my trip to New Orleans.

"I am not quite sure that the scale of the Summit has sunk in yet. One thing is for sure I won't be winging this one! I will be rehearsing my presentation quite a bit well before I get up on that stage."

Mr Donno has worked closely with Sage, the organisers of the event, for over 20 years. In 2014 they named him "Online Provider of the Year."

Five-star Italian cuisine at Zafra

WITH spring in the air – and summer just around the corner – there's never been a better time to visit Zafra Italian restaurant.

From the charming rural setting in the picturesque Essex village of Finchingfield, complete with village green where you can feed the ducks, the family-run eatery has lots of delicious fare on offer.

Chef Frank Tyler's cuisine is always of the highest standards. So much so, in fact, that Zafra is proud to have recently been awarded a five star health and hygiene rating (the highest score available). The restaurant has garnered great customer reviews over the years, and is ranked as "highly commended" on the popular TripAdvisor website too.

Specialising in fresh fish, steaks, grills, pizza and pasta, with a strong focus on good Italian dishes, there will be something for everyone to enjoy.

Other tasty dishes include lemon sole, swordfish in a Sicilian sauce, tiger prawns, a delicious seabass, scallop and crab ravioli or salmon in a fennel and lemon sauce. For pasta fans, another popular dish is the fresh ravioli with gorgonzola and walnut, and traditional spring lamb always makes for a tasty main course.

Your sweet tooth won't be neglected, either. Desserts on offer include the classic tiramisu, Italian-style profiteroles with milk chocolate sauce, panna cotta, cheesecake or an indulgent treacle tart. And if the weather outside is warm, why not cool down with an ice cream cornet?

Zafra is getting ready to party on June 28, when singer Antony Myers will entertain with the music of Frank Sinatra, as customers enjoy a two course meal for just £30. There are also special pizza evenings for a mid-week treat.

So why not make a reservation now, and take a trip out to this charming Finchingfield restaurant as the evenings get lighter and the days get warmer and longer.

Zafra is at 5 The Green, Finchingfield, Essex. Visit zafrafinchingfield.co.uk or telephone (01371) 810501 to reserve a table.

PATRIOTIC: Cllr Betty McLatchy with staff and students at Little Wonders Parkway

Little Wonders celebrate VE day

A pre-school celebrated VE Day on Friday, May 8, with a wartime-style party.

Staff and children at Little Wonders Pre-School Parkway in Haverhill's School Lane dressed up in red, white and blue to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the end of the Second World War.

They also had their own "street party" in the pre-school's garden, sang wartime songs, and made cakes decorated with Union Jacks.

The whole week had a VE Day theme, with the children painting and colouring Union Jack flags in the run-up to the election.

The "street party" was visited by town and borough councillor Betty McLatchy, who previously expressed her support for VE Day celebrations at a full town council meeting on Tuesday, May 28.

Little Wonders Parkway is also holding a fun day and kids' market on Saturday, May 23 from 10.30am to 3pm.

The day will involve a bouncy castle, face painting, a barbecue and a number of children's market stalls.

ELECTION DAY: At Castle Manor School, Haverhill. Head boy and girl candidates Eden Arkesden, Callum Friel, Ella Blowes and Thomas Newman with Matthew Hancock

Votes cast at academy polls

ELECTION fever gripped the nation last Thursday – and the students at Castle Manor Academy were no exception.

A polling station was set up at the school on May 7 as the pupils placed their votes to choose next year's head boy and head girl.

The four candidates for the posts, Eden Arkesden, Ella Blowes, Callum Friel and Thomas Newman, had been through a rigorous application process, applying by letter and making speeches in front of their peers.

They had also been campaigning hard, producing posters and appearing in hustings events.

All five of the West Suffolk parliamentary candidates, UKIP's Julian Flood, Conservative Matthew Hancock, Labour's Michael Jefferys, Green Niall Pettitt and Lib Dem Elfreda Tealby-

HANNAH MIRSKY

Watson, visited the school. They talked to the students in the election process and were quizzed on their views.

Outgoing head boy Ethan Woodley said: "I had a very informative session listening to each of the candidates and their differing views. I think it was brilliant to extend the voting experience to include a polling station."

Conservative Matthew Hancock, now re-elected as MP for West Suffolk, said to the candidates: "You have obviously done a fantastic job and enjoyed an excellent turnout. I wish you all good luck and look forward to meeting you again as head boy and head girl."

The results of the election were announced online on Monday morning. Ella Blowes was elected as head girl and Callum Friel as head boy. The two have already paid a visit to Burton End Primary School in their new roles.

Head of School Vanessa Whitcombe said: "Our students had a wonderful learning experience. Having all five parliamentary candidates come along to the event proved their commitment to the fantastic learning that happens here at Castle Manor Academy."

"All of the candidates did a wonderful job in preparing their speeches and engaging with voters. I am sure that they will all find a place on next year's Student Parliament."

If you would like to view a video of the election result announcement and the hustings videos, visit the school's website, www.castlemanor.suffolk.sch.uk.

Stroke support group hire speech therapist

A STROKE support group has used new funding to hire a speech and language therapist.

The Haverhill Stroke Support Group received £1048 from ONE Haverhill's community fund earlier this year, and decided to put it towards hiring the therapist.

The therapist will be able to help stroke victims with the communication difficulties that many people encounter after a stroke.

To show the local community what the money is being spent on, the Haverhill Stroke Support Group will have a stall on Haverhill Market tomorrow, Friday, May 16.

They will promote their group, talk to people about stroke awareness, and carry out blood pressure checks.

Afterwards, they will attend their usual meeting in the afternoon at Haverhill Fire Station.

Thieves break into garden sheds

TWO garden sheds in Haverhill were broken into on the same night last week.

Overnight between Friday, May 8 and Saturday, May 9, a shed was broken into in the town's Kestrel Road.

Equipment worth £400 was taken from the shed, including a surround sound hi-fi, CDs and videos.

A shed on Millfields Way was broken into on the same night in Haverhill.

Nothing was taken from the Millfields Way shed.

Burglaries of garages and sheds are an ongoing problem in Haverhill.

If you know anything about these incidents, or to inquire about crime prevention advice, call Haverhill Police on 101.

You can also call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

'Eye tests have transformed my son's reading'

HANNAH MIRSKY

A MUM has urged other parents to get their children's eyes tested after her son's reading was transformed by a new pair of glasses.

Haverhill resident Caroline Elsdon's 10-year-old son Aidan, who attends Coupals Primary Academy, struggled with reading from an early age.

He was tested for dyslexia, but the result was negative, despite him falling behind in school.

Mrs Elsdon then took him for a colour overlay assessment, which determines whether a child's eyesight would benefit from tinted coloured glasses.

It is part of a process called colorimetry, which is a special test of tests for symptoms of visual stress.

Mrs Elsdon says that Aidan's reading was transformed even while the optician was testing him.

"It was so emotional, I had

never heard Aidan read so fluently and I just burst into tears. It is such a relief to finally know why Aidan was struggling with his reading and I am so glad we found out about colorimetry.

"This could be life changing for Aidan and he seems much more confident."

Aidan has been reading more since being prescribed tinted spectacles.

He said: "The words make more sense to me and I enjoy reading now. My favourite books at the moment are The Gruffalo and Horrid Henry."

The test took place at Wardale Williams opticians in Camps Road, which offers colour overlay assessments free of charge.

Senior optometrist Joanna Williams, who carried out Aidan's assessment, said:

"Some children struggle to read at expected levels as they experience peculiar visual symptoms when looking at a printed page, this is known as visual stress. "However, scientific research has shown symptoms of visual stress can be reduced with colour, for some children the words become clearer when coloured overlays are placed over the page, if this is the case tinted glasses can be prescribed to help a child read better."

"We would urge any parent whose child is suffering with their reading to consider colorimetry as it could be the answer and the coloured overlay assessments are free of charge."

Let's dance

Founder of the UK's first independent dance company, 66-year-old Richard Alston is what you'd call an old hand when it comes to choreography, movement and picking the most vibrant music to match.

He is returning to Cambridge Arts Theatre with his team of young professional dancers as he celebrates the company's 20th anniversary through leg flexing, leap-filled numbers.

It also marks his first foray into hip hop – a fairly risky strategy at this stage in the year.

However, he has teamed up with talented hip hop artist, dancer and choreographer, Ajani Johnson-Goffe, for the brand new piece in question, Nomadic, so he's got the clout to back it up. Nomadic "connects Romanian gypsy music and electronic sound" we're told, and so far the critics have deemed it fairly successful.

Also on the bill is Burning, a piece from associate choreographer Martin Lawrance, which takes inspiration from Dante's Sonata of Franz Liszt, a story of lust and betrayal as a love affair falls passionately apart.

In a more traditional turn, Illuminations is set to composer Benjamin Britten's masterpiece of the same name, and explores the life of the precocious French poet Arthur Rimbaud, choreographed to be as turbulent as the writer's short existence.

Richard Alston Dance Company,
Cambridge Arts Theatre, Friday-
Saturday, at 7.45pm. Tickets
£15-£27.50 from (01223) 503333

Jimmy Cricket's 'Value for a Tenner' show coming to town

VETERAN comedian Jimmy Cricket is taking to the stage in Soham on Sunday.

The 69-year-old Irish comedian is bringing his 'Value for a Tenner' show to The Brook.

Jimmy said: "I really enjoyed visiting The Brook when I was last there at the end of 2013 and performed in front of a great crowd.

"I hope that my visit this time on a Sunday afternoon will allow for the shopping to be completed the day before and for the family to all come after their lunch-time get together.

"This will mean a chance to laugh off the calories for what will be a lot less than your typical family trip to the cinema.

"There is no better experience than live theatre, so come along and support your local one in Soham."

JORDAN DAY

show off their prized equines, enabling visitors to get up close to them.

The carnival parade, boasting colourful floats, dance routines and lively music, starts at 1pm in Holmes Lane and will make its way to the main arena for approximately 1.45pm.

Once at the recreation ground, the fun will continue through until the early evening, with a whole host of attractions, including performances by the Moto Stunts International (MSI) Wolf Stunt team, National Search and Rescue Dog Association (NSARDA) Anglia, the ACF Marching Band and a classic car parade.

OPERA

■ It's that time of year again; the English Touring Opera are making their rounds and Cambridge Arts Theatre have snagged them next week.

They'll be performing three shows, see one, or two, or, if you're feeling flush, all three. Take your pick:

The Siege of Calais (L'assedio di Calais): Tuesday, May 26

Garnering 4 star reviews across the board (The Telegraph called it: "Robust, virile and emotionally charged"), The Siege of Calais is a patriotic onslaught from 'bel canto' composer Gaetano Donizetti, packed with arias.

With a huge ensemble cast, it tells the tale of the people of Calais sacrificing their lives to protect their home from armed British invaders.

The Wildman of the West Indies (Il furioso all'isola di San Domingo): Wednesday, May 27

Considered the new masterpiece of the trio, this is the first major scale tour of Donizetti's The Wildman of the West Indies in the world since its debut.

It is based on a chunk of Don Quixote, set on a Caribbean island where Cardenio escapes to after his wife Eleonora cheats on him.

La Bohème: Thursday, May 28 - Saturday, May 30

The week's finale comes in the form of Italian composer Giacomo Puccini's La Bohème. Set in 19th century Paris, a lowly dressmaker and poet fall in love on Christmas Eve as the snow swirls outside, but will their love outlast their bohemian lifestyle?

The lovers are played by Ilona Domnich (Mimi) and David Butt Philip (Rodolfo). We're told it'll make you cry.

All three operas will be sung in Italian with English surtitles for reference.

English Touring Opera, Cambridge Arts Theatre, Tuesday, May 26 - Saturday, May 30 at 7.30pm.

Tickets £20-£39 from (01223) 503333 / cambridgeartstheatre.com.

■ On the cinema front, experience Kurt Cobain like never before in KURT COBAIN: MONTAGE OF HECK (15) on Wednesday May 20 at 7.30pm. He turns to talented outsider Sabine De Barra to bring a fresh perspective and is initially unsettled by her free-thinking style, you go girl! www.haverhillweeklynews.co.uk/drive

Paper licence is at the end of the road

THE end of the paper element of the driving licence on June 8 is likely to create a summer of frustration for car buyers and dealers alike.

The imminent withdrawal of the paper part of the driving licence could turn the simple test drive into an administrative nightmare for car buyers. That's the stark view of Dean Pipitone, director at leading dealer solutions provider, Cooper Solutions.

Working with over 1,650 dealers across the UK, Cooper Solutions estimates that the vast majority of UK dealers are not fully aware of the implications of the withdrawal of the paper element of the licence and how it could hamper drivers taking test drives. Feedback suggests few dealers have yet made any plans to manage the licence checking process as part of their duty of care and insurance responsibility.

Feedback from dealers who insure customers on their own motor policies suggests that as many as one in two are considering a move to alternative cover, to deal with the cost and administrative hassle created by the scrapping of the paper counterpart.

Clearly, insurers will expect dealers to carry out one of the available additional checks that replace the paper counterpart, some new, some existing. These options include a premium rate phone line, the View My Licence and Share My Licence portals or Access to Driver Data (ADD) and specialist solutions like that available within FullCover, Cooper Solution's comprehensive fleet management product.

Pipitone comments: "We've been spending time assessing the impact of these options for car buyer and dealers alike and frankly, none of them make life easier for either party.

"Whatever solution dealers go for, new processes certainly need to be in place soon!"

THE VAUXHALL ADAM: Fuel bonanza

Murketts has Free Fuel Event – valued at £500

LOCAL Vauxhall retailer, Murketts Vauxhall, is helping customers cut costs at the fuel pumps this May, as it welcomes back to its showroom Vauxhall's Free Fuel Event.

The retailer with sites in Cambridge and Huntingdon is giving away £500-worth of free fuel on a wide selection of brand new Vauxhall cars and vans purchased during the Free Fuel Event, which takes place from Friday, May 15 to Monday, May 18.

During the four-day period, customers can also get 20 per cent off all genuine and approved Vauxhall accessories, including a vast array of equipment such as sat navs, iPhone/iPad cradles and cargo liners, when they purchase a new car or van. These deals are on top of Vauxhall's existing range of available offers.

Mark Smith, group sales manager at the retailer, comments: "The Vauxhall Free Fuel Event will come as welcome news to motorists looking for a new vehicle this spring. The offers enable drivers to take to the road in a brand new Vauxhall for less, all the while knowing that the cost of filling their fuel tank is covered for a while!"

"We'd like to invite all those interested in a new vehicle to stop by our dealership during the event to take advantage of the offers available and discover the Vauxhall that best suits their needs."

The £500 free fuel offer is available on a wide range of models, including the urban-chic ADAM city car, fun-loving new Corsa and all-season soft-top Cascada.

As well as passenger cars, the offer is applicable on models from Vauxhall's multi-award-winning van range. Details at murketts.co.uk.

Seat unveils the latest Ibiza in Spain

SEAT has chosen the Barcelona Motor Show to take the covers off of its New Ibiza.

The latest version of the Spanish brand's iconic model comes with a raft of innovative technologies, new engines and equipment options, plus additional safety systems and, above all, a completely new connectivity and infotainment line-up.

The Seat Ibiza is driven by a completely new generation of petrol and TDI engines. The entry-level petrol engine is a three-cylinder with 1.0-litre displacement, which produces 75PS in naturally aspirated format and 95 PS or 110PS as Eco TSI turbocharged engines. A further highlight is the four cylinder 1.4 Eco TSI with active cylinder management

ON THE WAY: The new Seat Ibiza

(ACT). Its improved output of 150PS and torque of 250 Nm guarantee lots of dynamic driving fun with an handy combined fuel consumption of 58.9mpg.

EU6 emissions and start/stop are standard across the range.

Blackjacks suffer loss to Old Timers

A POOR start from Haverhill Blackjacks cost them dear as they crashed 34-23 at home to Old Timers in British Baseball Federation League, Single A South.

Making his debut on the mound for Blackjacks, pitcher Ryan Carter had a tough baptism as he found the tight strike zone difficult to deal with.

He walked seven batters as the visitors chalked up 10 runs in their first inning.

Haverhill could only respond with two of their own through Carter and rookie catcher Chris Connett.

Carter responded well by sitting Old Timers down in the second inning and the hosts halved the deficit thanks to Liam World, who worked around some wayward pitching to get to base on balls.

Blake Broekhoven and Connett also came home after Ben Fiske smashed his first two-RBI single only to be tagged out to end the inning.

But throughout the third and fourth innings, Blackjacks imploded once more with several errors in the field allowing the visitors to notch seven runs in each inning.

Haverhill could only respond with five during that spell as they suddenly trailed 24-10 heading into the fifth inning, again the victim of their own mistakes against a well-drilled, experienced team.

Old Timers added a further three runs in the fifth inning after Matt Richardson took to the mound for the first time this season.

He found it tough pitching from the flat, hitting two of the six batters he faced and recording two strikeouts.

But the hosts replied with five runs, their first four batters all scoring before Daniel Becking hammered his first home run of the campaign.

The visitors continued their aggressive offence in the sixth inning, piling further misery on Blackjacks with three more runs to take a 30-15 lead.

Again Haverhill rallied as they cracked eight runs in the bottom of the sixth with all but one player reaching base before Broekhoven launched a fly ball over the centrefield fence for a grand slam with the bases loaded – his first home run for the club.

With Chris Loades bagging his third run of the game and Nick Hayhoe also plating, the hosts had reduced the arrears to 30-23.

However, it soon became clear it would not be enough to give them a chance of victory as Old Timers scored four runs off the back of some wild pitching and more defensive errors to move 11 runs clear.

With the slaughter rule in effect, Haverhill needed something special, but they were unable to record a run in the seventh inning as the game came to an end.

Blackjacks face their first away match of the season against Richmond Dukes on Sunday.

Dellar shines in crucial victory over Lakenheath

HAVERHILL enjoyed an impressive win over Lakenheath in the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship, Division Two.

At 60 for 5, Haverhill appeared to be in serious trouble, but an impressive 105 from Adam Dellar and a solid knock of 21 from Rob Dovaston took them to 214 for 7.

Lakenheath could only muster 200 for 9 in reply.

Woodley was the star performer with the ball for the visitors, taking five wickets for 38 runs.

Dan Pass also chipped in, taking two wickets.

"Adam and Rob batted really well to dig us out of the mire," said Haverhill skipper Joe Woodley.

"We bowled well and the pitch had flattened out by the end so it was pleasing to get over the line away from home."

Haverhill will look to continue their winning form this weekend when they entertain Long Melford.
